

BAKERSFIELD, CA - On Saturday, November 3rd, Congressman Jim Costa (D-Fresno) will be attending a Homebuyer and Foreclosure Prevention Fair which he is sponsoring. Some of the agencies providing information about home purchasing and preventing foreclosure include Housing and Urban Development, ACORN Housing, Consumer Credit Counseling Services, as well as local banks and licensed Realtors.

Costa will give a brief speech regarding home ownership and the recent foreclosure crisis. He will also be available to the media following his speech to discuss the purpose of the workshop, condition of the housing market, the record number of foreclosures, and recent passage of legislation in the House of Representatives to address these housing problems.

WHO: Rep. Jim Costa, D-Fresno

WHAT: Homebuyer and Foreclosure Prevention Fair

WHEN: Costa will address the audience at 10:30am

WHERE: Richard Prado East Bakersfield Senior Center

2101 Ridge Road, Bakersfield, CA 93307